Coyote Camp Directors and Staff

Camp Director Noah Kooiman

Entering his 10th year at Cal State San Bernardino, and his 4th with just the men's soccer team, Coach Kooiman was selected as the 2009 NCAA Far West Region Coach of the Year after leading the Coyotes to the NCAA Division II Regional Semifinals and the CCAA Tournament Semifinals.

Previous years have seen him manage both the men's and women's teams. Coach Kooiman graduated from CSU Fullerton, where he played four years, and captained the squad for two. His natural leadership abilities and unrelenting work ethic helped establish him on the professional level after college. He is also a vital part of the Arsenal FC club based in Alta Loma.

Coach Kooiman and the entire Coyote Soccer Camp staff look forward to sharing the beautiful game with each and every camper.

Assistant Camp Director Tony Vigil

Recently promoted to associate head coach, Tony Vigil is entering his third season on the men's soccer team coaching staff after a outstanding career as a midfielder-defender for the Coyotes for four seasons. In addition, he is a Region IV ODP staff coach, a USSF "B" licensed coach and director of coaching for the Alliance Futbol Club in San Bernardino.

A Great Experience for Every Camper

The Coyote Soccer Camp is geared for soccer players of all levels.

Players receive coaching to fit their specific needs in an enjoyable environment. Instruction will focus on technical development such as dribbling, passing, shooting.

Tactical ideas will also be presented to the campers in a fashion that will create a more intelligent player. The campers are encouraged to ask questions during the sessions so that they may get the most from the camp.
